A London based cinematographer that has completed training at the American Society of Cinematographers in LA and courses at the National Film and Television School in London. Suzanne has shot a number of award-winning films and her work has been screened at festivals worldwide. She is a member of the Guild of British Camera Technicians and a Friend of the ACO.

Recent projects include reality style multi-camera pilot "Beef" commissioned by channel 4, Music Promo for pop band Blonde Electra, a corporate production involving the Duchess of Cambridge supporting children's mental health week and Feature Film "Guardians", a dark comedy from writer director Mark A.C. Brown. The feature production follows the success of Suzanne and Marks previous collaboration "Corinthian", a short film that, to date, has been accepted into over 40 film festivals worldwide.

Suzanne has always had a passion for storytelling, no matter the project. Whether it is a film, commercial, documentary, music promo or television show, she strives to tell the story with emotive and engaging visuals.
