

I provide my Cinematography & Shooting PD skills to productions working across all platforms, from TV drama and documentary, to online content.

I have over fifteen years experience in the prep, production and post production aspects of shooting in studio and on location in the UK and Overseas, earning myself an impressive list of credits for clients including: BBC, Paramount, Disney, BAFTA & The British Council.

My work in film as a Camera Operator has featured at several UK film festivals including the BAFTA supported ASFF and LSFF. My work as a shooting PD in factual and documentary has won recognition from DirectorsUK and has been shortlisted by the BBC and BFI.
