About Me:

I started in film and television at Samuelson Film Services equipment rental. I moved on after eighteen months to a sound post production house in Soho called Mobitrack Sound Processes where I learned a lot about how sound really should sound. I went freelance in 1987 and have enjoyed a remarkable variety in my work ever since. I enjoy motorsport, boats, all kinds of live music and the arts. I am versatile, creative and willing to work. I love my job.
