ABOUT ME

I am a Sound Recordist with over 25 years of experience, specializing in high-end documentaries, fast-paced factual programs, travelogues, and both small and large-scale reality shows, as well as children's TV. I have collaborated with all the major UK broadcasters, production companies, and streaming platforms, including many international clients.

I pride myself on being professional, efficient, and friendly on location and enjoy working as part of a team.

Based in Cheshire, between Manchester, Birmingham, and Liverpool, I am open to working anywhere in the UK or globally and have extensive international experience.

For bookings or to discuss your next production, please get in touch.
